Preface

This Fact Book, Dear Colleagues . . .

. . . represents an important step toward our goal of generating and sharing reliable information that will help each person who is involved with The University of Akron come to know how her or his actions contribute to the collaboratively woven tapestry that is our University.

In that context, this publication serves as both a map and a journal. It describes the elements of our evolving goals and vision, and chronicles some of the excellence that makes The University of Akron the public research university for Northern Ohio, including some recent achievements of which we can be very proud. In just the past 2 ½ years, we have taken bold steps toward capturing the University's destiny:

- Launching our New Landscape for Learning campus enhancement effort;
- Starting an ongoing and inclusive strategic thinking process and incorporating that thinking into the "Charting the Course" document;
- Setting new fund-raising records each year and obtaining the largest individual donation to the University for research ($1.75 million from Dr. James D. D'Ianni), the largest alumni gift ($5 million from James and Gail McCready), and the largest gift ever to the University ($10 million from Jim and Vanita Oeschlager);
- Gaining increased recognition on the state and national levels, and receiving federal appropriations in support of University programs;
- Enhancing the visibility and image of the University through an aggressive marketing campaign;
- Establishing partnerships with the leaders of information technology, including IBM, Cisco Systems, PeopleSoft, Tivoli, 2Way, Campus Pipeline, WebCT and AOL Time Warner;
- Obtaining the largest grant in our history ($13.7 million from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation to the Center for Health and Social Policy);
- Receiving a Knight Foundation grant that will enable us to develop an outline for the future revitalization of the neighborhood surrounding campus;
- Reaching an agreement with Akron officials to close portions of two main streets that currently split our campus core into quadrants; and
- Exhibiting depth, breadth and quality in service to our sponsoring society in four clusters of excellence – Discovery and Innovation, Cultural Enrichment, Community Well Being and Economic Development.

We also have enjoyed crafting some evocative language to tell ourselves and others about who we are, such as, "setting the standard for excellence and student success in northern Ohio," "experience the Akron Advantage" and "creating a New Landscape for Learning . . . where you can dream, dare and do the things it takes to change the world." And, we have used our University mascot, that adorable kangaroo that we affectionately call Zippy, as a vehicle for describing the University's impact, saying: "All of us need to remember, in the metaphors of financial markets, that this kangaroo is bullish on Akron and on Ohio; it packs quite a punch, puts quite a zip into everything we do; and is always one giant leap ahead of the competition!"

Most important, we have accomplished all of this together, in the spirit of shared leadership! Yet, there still is much we must do, and will do, as we advance the obvious promise of The University of Akron – and share the story that is beginning to be told within the following pages.

I am deeply indebted to all of you who every day make The University of Akron better and better.

With every good wish,

Sincerely,

Luis M. Proenza, President

Section 1: Historical and General Information

Section 1.1: General Description

The University of Akron, northern Ohio's leading public university, is a world leader in creating new materials for the new economy; a national leader in the development, protection, management and commercialization of intellectual property; and a regional leader in information technology initiatives.

Akron is the only university in Ohio to have a science and engineering program ranked in the top five nationally; its polymer science and engineering program, ranked second in the U.S., serves Ohio's $22 billion polymer industry and includes a NASA-supported nanotechnology initiative. The University also has strong ties with business leaders, including information technology partnerships with IBM, Cisco Systems and Time Warner, among others.

The University of Akron excels in many other areas as well, with more documented excellence than any other public university in northern Ohio. The scope of that quality and its effects are evident in four clusters of excellence – Discovery and Innovation, Cultural Enrichment, Community Well Being and Economic Development.

With an enrollment of more than 22,000, The University of Akron is among the 75 largest public universities in the country. More than 715 full-time faculty members teach undergraduate and graduate students from 41 states and 83 foreign countries.

The institution offers more than 300 undergraduate, master's, doctoral and law degree programs. Through enhanced evening and weekend programs, on-site and distance learning classes at convenient locations throughout Summit and Medina counties, and its Wayne College branch campus in Orrville, The University of Akron gives students exceptional scheduling flexibility and convenience, in addition to a broad range of academic choices.

The University's responsiveness to the region's educational and technological needs have been its hallmark throughout the school's history.

The institution now known as The University of Akron was founded as Buchtel College in 1870 by the Ohio Universalist Convention, which was strongly influenced by the efforts, energy and financial support of Akronites, particularly industrialist John R. Buchtel. From the outset, the college and the surrounding community were closely tied, with the college addressing the needs of the region as well as those of the Universalist Church and local entrepreneurs assisting the fledgling institution time and again. By 1907, Buchtel College's emphasis on local rather than denominational interests led it to become a private, non-denominational school.

The college's strong ties to the community and its challenging financial situation prompted Buchtel College trustees to transfer the institution and its assets to the city of Akron in 1913. For the next 50 years, the municipal University of Akron, assisted by city tax funds, brought college education within the reach of many more young people. During those years, enrollment swelled from 198 to about 10,000.

The University's growth paralleled the remarkable expansion of Akron. People were drawn to the city, already a major manufacturing center, by the promise of jobs. Companies such as Goodyear, Firestone and Goodrich were headquartered in Akron, so it was only natural that the world's first courses in rubber chemistry would be offered at the University, beginning in 1909. With the formation of the Rubber Technical Institute in 1942, University researchers and students were well-prepared to contribute to the development of synthetic rubber to aid the Allied war efforts.

A long era of expansion followed World War II. Overseeing much of this growth was the University's 10th president, Dr. Norman P. Auburn. Under Auburn's leadership, the institution made the transition in 1967 from a municipal to a state university.

In the years to follow, as tire production jobs left the Akron area, the University's pioneering research was instrumental in helping the once-undisputed Rubber Capital of the United States evolve into the polymer center of the world.

In 1988, the University established the world's first College of Polymer Science and Polymer Engineering — now the largest academic program of its kind in the world.

Led today by its 15th president, Dr. Luis M. Proenza, The University of Akron has embarked on an ambitious $200 million campaign to create a New Landscape for Learning.

Construction of 6 new buildings, renovation of 14 other structures, the closing of two streets through campus and the addition of 30 acres of green space are underway. New degrees and certificates are offered in such areas as computer engineering, intellectual property law, e-commerce and international business. Research into biomaterials, nanotechnology and other emerging sciences offers hope for astounding medical and technological breakthroughs – and innovative activities in the arts and in community service continue to define and enhance the quality of life for those in the region and beyond.

As it moves into the 21st century, The University of Akron is poised to become the public research university for Northern Ohio, comparable to what The Ohio State University has long been for Central Ohio and to what the University of Cincinnati has more recently become for Southern Ohio.

Section 1.2: Mission and Strategic Directions

1.2.1 Mission

The University of Akron, a publicly assisted metropolitan institution, strives to develop enlightened members of society. It offers comprehensive programs of instruction from associate through doctoral levels, pursues a vigorous agenda of research in the arts, sciences and professions, and provides service to the community. The University pursues excellence in undergraduate and graduate education and distinction in selected areas of graduate instruction, inquiry and creative activity.

1.2.2 Fundamental Strategies

- Attract and retain a higher quality and more diverse student body.
- Identify and eliminate barriers to a campus culture of service and make every effort to improve the campus environment.
- Increase student retention and progress toward completion of their academic programs.
- Improve the quality of the undergraduate experience.

- Cultivate scholarly and creative activities that are recognized regionally, nationally and internationally.
- Acquire and efficiently utilize the human, informational, financial and physical campus resources needed to fulfill the mission of The University of Akron.

1.2.3 Charting the Course

Today, the University stands on the threshold of a fundamental shift in thinking and a sweeping recommitment of institutional talents, energies and resources toward attaining even greater excellence. The blueprint for change is "Charting the Course," which provides a common framework of understanding and direction. "Charting the Course " is an ongoing and dynamic process of strategic thinking that begins with the University's fundamental strategies and builds to where the institution envisions itself in the future.

1.2.4 Preamble

As we, The University of Akron, move into the 21st Century and our 131st year . . .

. . We are cognizant of the transformations that have marked the University's history, from our founding in 1870 as a private liberal arts school, to our transition in 1913 to the Municipal University of Akron and to our becoming a state university in 1967;

. . . We are grateful for our Founders, mindful of our traditions and enthusiastic about our future; and,

. . . We recognize that we create our future as a collaborative enterprise based upon a common framework of understanding and direction.

Charting the Course is that framework.

1.2.5 Who We Are . . .

Our expertise creates the new materials for the new economy,

And shapes the communities that we serve.

We are The University in, of and for Akron,

The public research university for Northern Ohio,

We are you.

1.2.6 Vision & Strategic Intent

Objective and documented excellence tells us that The University of Akron is already the leading public university in northern Ohio and signals a clear promise and destiny. We have framed our vision as a Statement of Strategic Intent:

The University of Akron intends to be recognized as the public research university for northern Ohio. It intends to achieve a prominence in northern Ohio comparable to that which Ohio State has long enjoyed in Central Ohio and which the University of Cincinnati has begun to achieve in the southern part of the state.

1.2.7 Priorities

Our number one priority is student success. Enabling student success will continue to be the hallmark of The University of Akron. We recognize, importantly, that students are the responsibility of all of us at the University, not just of those in our Admissions Office or of faculty in our classrooms. Moreover, we recognize that in today's knowledge economy students must be technologically competent and that the University must employ only the best management information systems. Thus, as a point of comparative advantage, we will be leaders in information technology.

1.2.8 Clusters of Excellence

We see The University of Akron as consisting of a set of four interrelated clusters of excellence that interweave to comprise the tapestry of who we are. Through the four clusters, the University is, in turn, engaged with the larger community that is Akron and Northeast Ohio. The four clusters of excellence are:

- Discovery & Innovation – All that we do to create and to protect new knowledge and technologies
- Cultural Enrichment – All that we do to define the cultural well being of the Greater Akron region
- Community Well Being – All that we do to enhance the general well being of our community
- Economic Development – All that we do to enhance the economy of Akron, Ohio, the nation and the world

1.2.9 Enabling Competencies

- First and foremost, we see our people – the students, faculty, staff, alumni and our community. We are The University of Akron! We are you!
- We see that there is much about the University that is vastly under-celebrated. In fact, there is more documented excellence at The University of Akron than at any other public university in northern Ohio and more excellence than any one of us previously seemed to recognize. The University of Akron, like the hometown hero who is lost in the all-too-common "strangeness of the familiar," is far better than anyone has acknowledged.
- We see the exceptional success of our students and graduates, their leadership positions, their love of the University and their continued engagement with us. They demonstrate that the University has a significant capacity to enable student success. This means that we have an environment conducive to opportunity and one where students acquire the skills, knowledge and disposition with which they can capture and experience success. Thus, we recognize student success as a core competency.
- We see that our location in Akron, at the heart of a thriving regional economy, is a significant competitive advantage. Indeed, The University of Akron is in, of and for Akron, and community engagement is at the core of our portfolio of opportunities.
- Finally, we see that shared leadership is the enabling power of this University. We know that there will be no limit to what we can accomplish so long as we work collaboratively toward a common vision, and we recognize that defining and realizing that common vision is what the process of strategic thinking is all about.

1.2.10 Strategies

We employ five strategies to guide our initiatives as the University moves into the 21st Century. (Note: Parenthetical items are ongoing projects related to the strategy.)

- Campus Enhancement:
  We are creating a New Landscape for Learning. We are constructing 6 new buildings, and undertaking major remodeling or additions in 14 other structures. We are adding 30 acres of green space at the core of the campus and planting 30,000 new trees along walkways, plazas and terraces. We are also forming partnerships that will reshape our surrounding environment so as to create an extended opportunity for positive engagement with the communities beyond our campus. (Campus

Master Plan; Knight Foundation Neighborhood Revitalization Grant)

- Enrollment Management:
  We will strategically shape and determine the quality, diversity and size of our student body. We will take aggressive and deliberate action to reverse the enrollment trends of the last 10 years through increased recruitment and retention activities. (Professional development of faculty and staff will assist us in the implementation of this strategy.)
- Revenue Enhancement & Diversification:
  We will enhance and diversify our revenues through additional federal funds from grants and contracts, increased state funding and additional private fund-raising. With 93 percent of our current revenues now derived from enrollment-related sources, the University must gain new revenues and achieve other efficiencies. (Continuous Quality Improvement; Incentive-Based Budgeting; Ohio Polymer Enterprise Development Corporation; Ohio Eminent Scholars; Federal/State Relations)
- Focused Differentiation:
  We will set ourselves apart and build our reputation upon unique strengths that generate opportunities for synergy and leverage. We will differentiate ourselves from the competition so as to let students know why this should be their university of choice. We will attain technological and programmatic excellence related to our setting so as to create competitive and comparative advantage. Importantly, we recognize that building focused excellence will enhance the breadth and depth of our total educational offerings, thereby making The University of Akron more attractive to students, faculty and staff. (Career Advantage Program – The Akron Advantage; Honors Program; Ubiquitous Computing; Carnegie Teaching Academy; Enhanced Research Programs; Clusters of Excellence)
- Telling the story:
  We will share our pride objectively, document our points of excellence and provide students the differentiating information to make The University of Akron their university of choice. We will increasingly attain recognition as the leading public research university in northern Ohio. (Advertising and Public Relations Campaign)

Section 1.3: Basis in Ohio Law

The General Powers and provisions applicable to State Universities in Ohio are found in Chapter 3345 of the Ohio Revised Code. The legal authority for The University of Akron is found in Chapter 3359 of the Revised Code. Specifically, Section 3359.01 states:

(A) There is hereby created a state university to be known as "The University of Akron." The government of the university of Akron is vested in a board of eleven trustees who shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate. Two of the trustees shall be students at The University of Akron, and their selection and terms shall be in accordance with division (B) of this section. Except for the terms of student members, terms of office shall be for nine years, commencing on the second day of July and ending on the first day of July. Each trustee shall hold office from the date of his appointment until the end of the term for which he was appointed. Any trustee appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed shall hold office for the remainder of such term. Any trustee shall continue in office subsequent to the expiration date of his term until his successor takes office, or until a period of sixty days has elapsed, whichever occurs first. No person who has served a full nine-year term or more than six years of such a term shall be eligible for reappointment. The trustees shall receive no compensation for their services but shall be paid their reasonable necessary expenses while engaged in the discharge of their official duties. A majority of the board constitutes a quorum.

(B) The student members of the board of trustees of The University of Akron have no voting power on the board. Student members shall not be considered as members of the board in determining whether a quorum is present. Student members shall not be entitled to attend executive sessions of the board. The student members of the board shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate, from a group of five candidates selected pursuant to a procedure adopted by the university's student governments and approved by the university's board of trustees. The initial term of office of one of the student members shall commence on July 2, 1988 and shall expire on July 1, 1989, and the initial term of office of the other student member shall commence on July 2, 1988 and expire on July 1, 1990. Thereafter, terms of office of student members shall be for two years, each term ending on the same day of the same month of the year as the term it succeeds. In the event that a student member cannot fulfill his two-year term, a replacement shall be selected to fill the unexpired term in the same manner used to make the original selection.

Section 1.4: Accreditation

Accreditation assures that degrees are recognized and approved by select regional and national education associations, societies and councils. The University of Akron has been approved by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools since 1914 and has been reaccredited at the highest level as a comprehensive doctoral degree-granting institution. This recognition illustrates the high academic standards maintained at the University and assures students taking pre-professional courses leading to advanced study in such fields as medicine, dentistry, law and theology that they are receiving sound preparation for acceptance at other graduate and professional schools. Accreditation also provides the security of knowing that the University will honor most credits earned at a similarly accredited college or university. Degrees earned at the University are respected and sought after by prospective employers.

In addition to the recognized regional accreditations, special accreditation for particular programs has been awarded as follows:

AACSB - The International Association for Management Education

Section 1.5: Historical Highlights

FOUNDER JOHN R. BUCHTEL, BOARD PRESIDENT 1870-1892

Akron industrialist John R. Buchtel was instrumental in persuading the Ohio Universalist Convention to found its college in Akron. He and his wife, Elizabeth, donated $31,000 of the $60,000 required to build the College and remained closely involved in its daily affairs. They often provided food, loans and other support to students, and Mr. Buchtel guided the business operations of the College. Despite many other interests, the Buchtels devoted most of their energies and fortune to the College, donating a total of nearly one-half million dollars.

1870 The institution now known as The University of Akron is founded as Buchtel College by the Ohio Universalist Convention. Its site, Akron, is a small but steadily growing city of 10,000 along the Ohio & Erie Canal.

1871 The cornerstone for Buchtel College is laid on July 4. The speaker for the occasion is Horace Greeley, editor of the New York Tribune, a prominent Universalist and a soon-to-be candidate for the presidency of the U.S.

PRESIDENT SULLIVAN H. MCCOLLESTER, 1872-1878

An ordained Universalist minister, Sullivan H. McCollester became the College's first president in 1872. His official title was President of the Faculty, so McCollester – and his immediate successors – served as chief academic officer, while the Board of Trustees handled business and management functions. In 1878, despite having the support of the Board, McCollester resigned due to church quarrels in which student factions were enlisted.

1872 Buchtel College opens its doors to 46 collegiate students, 171 preparatory students and seven faculty members in September. The College offers three courses of study – bachelors of arts, of philosophy and of science. Tuition is $30 and rent just $10 per year. Board costs, including utilities and laundry, are $5 per week. For the first 27 years of its existence, most of Buchtel College's academic and social activities take place in one five-story building.

The first endowed chair is established, the Professorship of Mental and Moral Philosophy.

1873 Susie Chamberlain becomes Buchtel College's first graduate. She later joins the faculty.

Along with fraternities, sororities and a variety of special-interest clubs, Buchtel's students begin participating in intercollegiate athletics through baseball.

PRESIDENT EVERETT L. REXFORD, 1878-1880

Everett L. Rexford was a young local Universalist pastor who helped found Buchtel College but preferred the pulpit to the presidency. After two productive years in office, he resigned to assume a pastorate in Detroit, after carrying on a bitter feud in the newspaper with another area pastor.

1880 The first master's degree is awarded - to William D. Shipman Buchtel College class of 1877.

1882 For the first time, students are allowed to choose some elective courses.

PRESIDENT ORELLO CONE, 1880-1896

The third Universalist clergyman to head Buchtel College was Orello Cone, a distinguished scholar and professor of Biblical languages and literature. During his presidency, Cone directed a successful fund-raising campaign for the first gymnasium on campus. Ironically, his resignation 16 years later was prompted in part by student and alumni resentment of his lack of enthusiasm for the football team.

1891 Buchtel starts participating in intercollegiate football.

1894 Under the leadership of a young coach named John Heisman, for whom the coveted Heisman Trophy is named, Buchtel's gridiron squad defeats Ohio State.

PRESIDENT CHARLES M. KNIGHT, 1896-1897

Charles M. Knight, a professor of chemistry and physics, was the only layman to head the school in the 19th century. He was considered to be well suited for the presidency, but he preferred teaching and agreed to serve on only an interim basis. Knight provided "steady leadership" during his year as president, then was appointed as the first Dean of the Faculty and awarded an honorary doctorate.

PRESIDENT IRA A. PRIEST, 1897-1901

Yet another pastor of the Universalist Church in Akron was chosen to lead the young institution through a very difficult period. During his four-year tenure, Ira A. Priest dealt with the effects of a nationwide economic depression and a devastating fire. He resigned in 1901 to go into business.

1899 Fire destroys the original Buchtel Hall, threatening the very existence of the struggling school, but Akron's citizens and local entrepreneurs once again come to the support of the young institution.

PRESIDENT AUGUSTUS B. CHURCH, 1901-1912

Augustus B. Church was the last Universalist clergyman to serve as president of Buchtel College and the first person to assume the broad responsibilities of chief executive officer. In fact, Church served both as president and as a trustee of the institution – as well as pastor of the local Universalist church. He died in 1912 of pneumonia brought on by exhaustion.

1907 Buchtel College becomes a non-denominational, private liberal arts college.

1909 Buchtel College offers the world's first courses in rubber chemistry.

PRESIDENT & FOUNDER PARKE R. KOLBE, 1913-1925

The last president of Buchtel College and the first president of the Municipal University of Akron grew up on the Buchtel campus. The son of Professor Carl Kolbe, Parke R. Kolbe added a new element to the president's role, the political leadership required of an institution that is dependent on public tax money. He is regarded as a founder of the University, due to his leadership in transforming the private college into a municipal university.

1913 Trustees transfer Buchtel College's assets to the city of Akron, creating the Municipal University of Akron. The liberal arts department is renamed the Buchtel College of Liberal Arts (now the Buchtel College of Arts and Sciences), and tuition in that college is made free to any student whose parents live in Akron.

1914 The College of Engineering is formed and pioneers one of the country's first cooperative education programs.

The new Municipal University of Akron is accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.

1915 Evening classes are offered on a regular basis.

1921 The College of Education is formed.

PRESIDENT GEORGE F. ZOOK, 1925-1933

George F. Zook devoted most of his energy to a controversial plan to relocate the campus on 60 acres of open land just west of Hawkins Avenue on Akron's west side. The stock market crash of 1929 helped influence voters to reject a bond issue that would have financed the move. Still, Zook guided the University through the beginning of the Great Depression, managing to maintain both academic quality and financial solvency.

1926 Trustees change the institution's name from the Municipal University of Akron to The University of Akron.

1927 "Zippers" is the winning entry in a contest to choose a nickname for the University's athletic teams. The name, suggested by Margaret Hamlin, is that of a popular overshoe manufactured by The B.F. Goodrich Company. The company grants permission to use the copyrighted name, which eventually will be shortened to "Zips."

1932 The University's Guggenheim Airship Institute is founded to conduct research in lighter-than-air craft as a joint effort with the California Institute of Technology. The Institute boasts about having the world's largest vertical wind tunnel.

PRESIDENT HEZZLETON E. SIMMONS, 1933-1951

Hezzleton E. Simmons, known affectionately as "Prez Hez" to the school's students, raised admissions standards to control enrollment, a policy that was precipitated by severe space constraints at the University. President Simmons persuaded his conservative board to apply for funds from two federal work-relief agencies, the Works Progress Administration and the Public Works Administration, to build Simmons Hall and the first student center.

1939 At the request of Akron students, popular band leader Fred Waring composes a fight song for the school. The Akron Blue and Gold premieres on Waring's weekly radio show. The song's name comes from the University's colors, which originally were adopted by Buchtel College.

1945 Demobilized World War II veterans flood college campuses nationwide, including Akron. Every conceivable space on or near campus is converted to classroom space to handle the "G.I. Bulge."

1945 Akron voters approve levies that enable the construction of Ayer Hall and what would eventually be named Crouse Hall. Wanting to maximize the use of taxpayer dollars, the Board insists on plain, rectangular structures.

PRESIDENT & FOUNDER NORMAN P. AUBURN, 1951-1971

Recognizing that voters did not understand much of what a university did, President Norman P. Auburn advocated campus growth and beautification as a means of gaining increased public support – and he succeeded greatly. Auburn oversaw tremendous growth in enrollment and the campus itself, fueled by municipal tax levies and private fund-raising. During his tenure, Memorial Hall and Kolbe Hall were among the many buildings constructed, the land that is now Lee R. Jackson Field was purchased, and plans were organized for financing the building of E.J. Thomas Performing Arts Hall. Because he engineered such significant growth and the transition of the institution to a state university, President Auburn is regarded, along with Buchtel and Kolbe, as a founder of the University.

1952 A University District is established to control construction immediately adjacent to the campus.

1953 The College of Business Administration is formed.

1954 While a Student Council effort to change the nickname of Akron's athletic teams from "Zips" to "Kangaroos" failed, a kangaroo mascot called "Zippy" (originally "Zippie") appears sometime around 1954.

1956 The Institute for Rubber Research is created.

1958 The vote to amend the city charter to allow the University to receive operating funds from taxpayers initially fails by 64 out of 95,626 votes. A recount shows the amendment passing by 262 votes.

1959 The University's first doctoral degree is awarded, in polymer science. In so doing, Akron becomes the fifth Ohio university to offer doctoral work, following Ohio State, Western Reserve, Case and Cincinnati.

The School of Law is established.

1960 For the first time since the days of Buchtel College, students reside on campus, due to the opening of a new 98-bed men's residence hall, which would later be named Ritchie Hall.

1963 The University of Akron receives its first state tax monies.

Work begins on a formal plan that will guide future development of the physical campus.

1964 The Community and Technical College is formed.

In a five-day span in October, U.S. President Lyndon Baines Johnson and his opponent for the presidency, Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater, each visit campus.

The Institute of Rubber Research is renamed as the Institute of Polymer Science.

1967 On July 1, The University of Akron officially becomes one of Ohio's state universities.

1967 The College of Fine and Applied Arts and the College of Nursing are formed.

The Challenge '70 Capital Campaign is launched. The largest fund-raising campaign in the University's history, its goal is to raise $10 million by 1970, with most of the funds targeted toward building a performing arts hall.

1971 Buchtel Hall, the only remaining structure from Buchtel College, is gutted by fire. It will be restored and will reopen in 1973.

PRESIDENT DOMINIC J. GUZZETTA, 1971-1984

Auburn's successor and former provost, Dominic J. Guzzetta, continued the campus expansion and beautification efforts. During his presidency, 15 facilities were constructed or acquired by the University, including the Rubber Bowl, which was transferred to the University by the city of Akron. The University also crossed Exchange Street – acquiring the East Crown apartment complex for dormitory space, the former Holiday Inn (now Gallucci Hall) and a former Cadillac sales and service facility (now Folk Hall).

1972 The Wayne College branch campus is established in nearby Orrville.

1973 The University of Akron joins a consortium with Kent State and Youngstown State universities to build the Northeast Ohio Universities College of Medicine in nearby Rootstown.

E.J. Thomas Performing Arts Hall opens its doors on the west side of campus on the former site of offices for John R. Buchtel's Buckeye Mower and Reaper Company.

PRESIDENT WILLIAM V. MUSE, 1984-1992

William V. Muse was known for his cooperative efforts with the city. He led the University as it "spanned the tracks," uniting the campus with Akron's central business district by acquiring the Polsky building on Main Street and its large parking deck on High Street, and the former Greyhound bus terminal on Broadway, which is now the site of the College of Business Administration building. Muse and city leaders also worked together to turn Buchtel Avenue into Buchtel Common, replacing a busy street in the middle of campus with a nicely landscaped, winding brick pedestrian walkway.

1986 The Ray C. Bliss Institute of Applied Politics is created to promote effective citizen involvement in politics. The Institute is named after a distinguished chairman of the state and national Republican Committee, who also served as Chairman of the University's Board of Trustees.

1987 The section of Buchtel Avenue that runs through campus is closed and, during the next two years, will be transformed into Buchtel Common.

1988 The University establishes the world's first College of Polymer Science and Polymer Engineering. What began nearly 80 years before as a few courses in rubber chemistry has evolved into the largest academic program of its kind in the world. The city once known as the "Rubber Capital of the World" now is an international center of polymer research.

1988 The University of Akron Press is founded. By 2001, it will publish 46 books and earn numerous national awards.

1991 The Polymer Science Building (later to be named the Goodyear Polymer Center) is dedicated. It will become a landmark for the campus and the city.

1992 Marion A. Ruebel serves as acting president from March through July, while a search is completed to replace President Muse.

PRESIDENT PEGGY GORDON ELLIOTT, 1992 – 1996

The University's first woman president, Peggy Gordon Elliott, sought to make the campus more "student-friendly," especially in serving those older and part-time students whom she called the "New Majority." During President Elliott's tenure the University Council was dissolved and the Faculty Senate created to provide a new system of governance for the institution.

1993 Faculty Senate is chartered.

1994 The Polsky Building on Main Street is opened. It is Ohio's largest academic building, the largest construction project undertaken by the University to date and a prominent extension of the campus into downtown.

1996 The polymer science program breaks into the top five of national rankings by U.S. News & World Report for the first time. The program is ranked second in the U.S.

PRESIDENT MARION A. RUEBEL, 1996 – 1998

During his 26-year career at the University prior to becoming president, Marion A. Ruebel had served in nearly every top administrative position, earning him the unofficial title of "designated hitter." The long-time education professor sought to improve the quality of education throughout the continuum, from kindergarten through college, and he expanded access to the University through a distance learning initiative, increased off-campus programming and a greatly enhanced scholarship program.

1996 Holdings of the University libraries pass the 1-million-volume mark in July.

The Scholarships for Excellence initiative is launched. It will create 200 full academic scholarships by 2000.

1997 The Medina Link project is begun, putting University resources within reach of more than 26,000 public school students throughout Medina County via distance learning technology.

In December, the University hosts United States President Bill Clinton for a nationally broadcast "town hall meeting" discussion titled, "One America: President Clinton's Initiative on Race."

1998 Former U.S. President George Herbert Walker Bush speaks at the School of Law Dean's Club Dinner in January.

With a $3 million gift from The Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, the University concludes a $125 million fund-raising campaign three years early.

Trustees approve a contract to complete a new plan for enhancing the campus and its facilities.

1998 The University announces its intent to pursue two complementary goals – being named as a Carnegie Teaching Academy and increasing annual federal research funding to more than $15.5 million.

PRESIDENT LUIS M. PROENZA, 1999 – present

A nationally known spokesperson for higher education and economic development through university-based research, Luis M. Proenza is leading the University toward capturing its destiny of becoming recognized as the leading public university in northern Ohio and the public research university for northern Ohio. Through his shared leadership approach, President Proenza has engaged the University and much of the surrounding community in embracing and pursuing a new vision for the University, which is outlined in a document titled, "Charting the Course." Under his guidance, the University has undertaken a $200 million campus enhancement effort as well as aggressive enrollment management and marketing initiatives, and it has set three consecutive annual fund-raising records.

1999 The New Landscape for Learning campus development initiative is launched. With a $200 million investment, 6 new buildings and major expansions or renovations of 14 other structures will be completed during the next five years, two main streets that cut through campus will be closed, and 30 acres of new green space will be added.

President Proenza begins a campus-wide strategic thinking process with a two-day retreat in which more than 150 members from all segments of the University community participate.

Dr. James D. D'Ianni, an important figure in the history and development of synthetic rubber, donates $1.75 million – the largest individual donation ever directed to the University's research efforts.

The Center for Health and Social Policy is established.

The first annual public policy forum is held. "Innovations in State Science and Technology Practices: How State Governments Best Leverage and Drive Economic Development" draws participants from throughout the nation.

The market value of the University's combined endowments exceeds $250 million.

The University establishes partnerships with seven industry leaders in information technology, including IBM, Cisco Systems, PeopleSoft and Time Warner.

The John S. and James L. Knight Foundation award a grant to the University to develop an outline for future revitalization of the neighborhood surrounding campus.

City of Akron officials agree to permanently close portions of Carroll and Brown/Union streets in 2001 in support of the University's New Landscape for Learning development efforts.

2001 James and Gail McCready give the University $5 million, its largest alumni donation.

The University's Center for Health and Social Policy receives a $13.7 million grant from The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation to create a new, state-of-the-art substance abuse prevention curriculum and test it nationwide. It is the largest grant in University history.

The University posts its fourth-consecutive record year for private giving, receiving donations of more than $20 million for the first time in its history.

On June 8, the first new building of the New Landscape for Learning Plan is dedicated, the Polymer Engineering Academic Center.

Section 1.12: The University of Akron Alumni Association Award

Alumni Honor Award
The University of Akron Alumni Association presents the Alumni Honor Award each year to alumni who have achieved distinction in their chosen fields or demonstrated loyal service and active interest in their Alma Mater.

The Alumni Honor Award was first presented in 1961. In 1988, The University of Akron Alumni Board of Directors officially renamed the award, honoring recipients in three distinct categories: Excellence in Professional Achievement, University Service, and Community Service. Today, all Alumni Honor Award recipients are listed equally as holders of the Alumni Honor Award for excellence in all of these categories. The Office of the Alumni Association accepts nominations for the award throughout the year.

Section 1.15: University Superlatives

The following facts are just some examples of the documented excellence that establishes The University of Akron as the leading public university in northern Ohio:

1.15.1 National Recognition

The University of Akron is ranked by U. S. News & World Report as one of the 228 national universities in the United States. According to the magazine's 2001 rankings, The University of Akron is among only six other Ohio universities that had any programs ranked in the top 25 nationally. What is more, The University of Akron is the only university in Ohio, public or private, to have a science and engineering program ranked in the top five in the nation. Akron's Polymer Science and Polymer Engineering program is ranked second in the United States, ahead of such highly regarded universities as M.I.T. and Caltech. As of March 2001, Akron's program in Industrial/Organizational Psychology is ranked 8th nationally.

A study released in late July 2000 by The Lombardi Program on Measuring University Performance, based at the University of Florida, examined American universities on 10 different measures of quality and ranked the top 100 public and private universities for each measure. The University of Akron was listed among the top 100 public universities on five measures – endowment assets (81st), national academy members (76th), doctorates awarded (75th), postdoctoral appointees (96th), and national merit and achievement scholars (77th). In Ohio, only Case Western Reserve, Ohio State and Cincinnati were ranked among the top 100 on more measures, and in northeast Ohio, no other public university came close to The University of Akron's performance. The only other area university that appeared among the top 100 public universities did so in only one dimension!

Photographer Andrew Borowiec, a professor at the Mary Schiller Myers School of Art, was awarded a 1998 Guggenheim Fellowship, which is considered to be one of the most distinguished awards in the country. Other University of Akron recipients of this honor are Constance Bouchard, professor of history, who won in 1994; and Wayne Mattice, the Alex Schulman Professor of Polymer Science, who won a Guggenheim in 1976.

The Surveying and Mapping Technology program is Ohio's only degree program focused exclusively on land surveying. It is one of only 14 four-year degree programs in the nation, according to the American Congress on Surveying and Mapping. Akron's surveying curriculum is one of only three university programs in Ohio approved as meeting the education requirements for students planning to take the professional licensure examination.

The University of Akron offers the only accredited Emergency Management Degree Program in the United States. It is the only such program in Ohio and one of fewer than 10 in the country.

The College of Business Administration is among the top 10.5 percent of business schools in North America to earn all four levels of accreditation from the American Academy of Collegiate Schools of Business — undergraduate and graduate business, plus undergraduate and graduate accounting.

Gamma Kappa, the UA Chapter of Pi Sigma Epsilon — the national professional fraternity in marketing, sales management, and selling — has ranked in the top 10 nationally every year since 1987.

The College of Business Administration Career Center is one of only 26 programs nationwide to receive the Ewing M. Kauffman Center for Entrepreneurial Leadership Award. The center has won the award in each of the past four years.

The National Institute for Trial Advocacy ranked University of Akron trial teams fifth in the nation in the three-year ranking for 1999-2000 and categorized them among the "best of the best" champions. In 2000, for the 11th year in a row, Akron's trial program was named as one of the top 16 programs in the nation by the institute. The team was national runner-up in the N.I.T.A. Tournament of Champions.

The collaborative program in Counseling Psychology, a joint effort of the Department of Counseling and Special Education and the Department of Psychology, ranked among the top 10 programs in the nation in annual scores of graduates taking the Examination for the Professional Practice of Psychology from 1988 through 1996. Akron ranked ninth among all education college programs and third among all psychology programs.

The University of Akron College of Nursing has the nation's best undergraduate curriculum for gerontological nursing, according to The American Association of Colleges of Nursing and the John A. Hartford Institute for Geriatric Nursing. The organizations named Akron as the 1999 recipient of the Award for Exceptional Curriculum Content in Gerontological Nursing. In announcing the award, the AACN said the college's "undergraduate curriculum gerontology initiative demonstrates exceptional innovation, relevance and replicability." The AACN has published the college's curriculum as a model for other nursing programs to follow.

The University of Akron is the only university in Ohio that is accredited at the master's and doctoral level by the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy.

The Archives of the History of American Psychology, housed at the University, is the largest and most famous resource of its kind in the world. The facility has been described as occupying "a position of unequalled importance among researchers in the history of psychology" (Sokal and Rafail, 1999). Its holdings include collections from more than 700 psychologists; records of more than 100 psychological journals and organizations; 153 miles of child development film plus 250 additional reels of film; 3,000 rare photographs; 5,000 test cards, blanks, and manuals; 3,000 rare and antiquarian books on psychology, philosophy, and science; and approximately 700 pieces of psychological apparatus, such as B.F. Skinner's first teaching machine, Stanley Milgrim's "shock" machine, and brass instruments from 19th century psychology laboratories.

The Ray C. Bliss Institute of Applied Politics is one of the nation's premier centers of research and instruction on the "nuts and bolts" of applied politics. The University of Akron is one of only five institutions in the United States that offers such a program. Many former interns occupy leadership positions in politics and government around the country. For example, Bliss graduates managed the Ohio campaigns of George W. Bush and Al Gore in the 2000 presidential race.

Wayne College is the second most wired two-year institution in the country, according to the May 2000 issue of Yahoo Internet Life magazine.

In 2000, The University of Akron was named National School of the Year at the National Association of College and University Residence Halls annual conference. The Residence Hall Program Board also has won two out of the last three national Associate's Choice Awards from the National Association of Campus Activities. The award recognizes the nation's most professional and competent campus programming organization. The University of Akron's National Residence Hall Honorary was named the "2001 Chapter of the Year" by the Central Atlantic Affiliate of College and University Residence Halls.

The University's School of Dance, Theatre, and Arts Administration was listed among the top 28 "most sought after dance programs in the country" in the September 1999 issue of Dance Spirit magazine. The school has a large undergraduate dance program that alternates with Ohio State's as the largest program in Ohio. Its resident company is the nationally acclaimed Ohio Ballet.

The University of Akron is the nation's largest single center of polymer education. It serves more than 300 graduate students in the College of Polymer Science and Polymer Engineering. The University also offers noncredit training in plastics processing and testing, a two-year degree program in polymer technology, undergraduate polymer specializations in chemistry and chemical engineering, and an undergraduate degree program in mechanical polymer engineering. These varied programs serve an industrial cluster that accounts for nearly one quarter of Ohio's manufacturing output.

Faculty in the College of Polymer Science and Polymer Engineering include winners of the highest international honors bestowed for achievement in the polymer field, including the Charles Goodyear Medal from the Rubber Division of the American Chemical Society, the Chemical Institute of Canada's Dunlop Medal, the Morely Medal from the American Chemical Society, the Colwyn Medal from the Plastic and Rubber Institute of Great Britain, the Bingham Medal from the Society of Rheology, and the Ford Prize in High Polymer Physics.

The Community and Technical College's two-year Polymer Technology program was Ohio's first degree program focusing exclusively on the plastics and polymer processing industries.

Through its departments of chemistry, polymer science and physics, the University houses one of Ohio's largest concentrations of advanced Nuclear Magnetic Resonance instrumentation.

The Molecular Spectroscopy Laboratory, operated by the Department of Chemistry, is one of the best-equipped and most productive laboratories of its kind in the state. The department's Unityplus 750 MHz NMR instrument is one of only two of its type in the world that has accessories geared for polymer research. The equipment enables the Department of Chemistry to assist the research efforts of more than 40 local, national and international companies.

The Applied Mathematics Scientific Computation Laboratory is a duplicate of a laboratory at NASA's Glenn Research Center in Cleveland. The laboratory offers undergraduate and graduate students, along with doctoral engineering and applied mathematics students, an opportunity to conduct mathematical modeling and computation in material science and crystal growth.

The University of Akron hosts the world's longest-running and largest annual symposium on tire mechanics. Each July, representatives of tire companies from Asia, Europe and North America attend this gathering.

The University of Akron is one of the nation's pioneers in distance learning, a remarkable new high-tech way to bring together students and teachers located in different cities. Offering much more potential than the old closed-circuit TV systems, the new system connects University of Akron instructors through a two-way fiber-optic network to classrooms at Wayne College and every high school and the Career Center in fast-growing Medina County. Students of all ages can now take a variety of multimedia college courses at these locations, and interact with their peers and instructors, without traveling to our central campus.

The University of Akron operates UADILES™, Ohio's only dedicated distance-learning fiber-optic network, providing an ultra-high bandwidth connection for real-time, interactive transmission of voice, video and data between the University and remote classrooms on area high school campuses and other distant facilities. UADILES™, which stands for UA

Distance Learning Systems, is recognized as a pioneering use of next-generation broadband Internet capabilities to provide one of the world's most advanced and "student friendly" distance learning applications.

1.15.3 Economic Development

The University of Akron has the only bachelor's level Automated Manufacturing Engineering Technology Program in northeast Ohio. The region's dependence on manufacturing and its importance to manufacturing is illustrated by the fact that Ohio led the nation for three years during the last decade in terms of new manufacturing plants and manufacturing plant expansions.

The University of Akron's finance curriculum is one of only three university programs in northern Ohio approved as the educational component for students planning to sit for the Certified Financial Planner certification examination (as of March 2001).

The College of Engineering's Cooperative Education Program is the fifth oldest in the nation, according to the American Society of Engineering Education/Cooperative Education Division. It serves 540 students and 100 companies in 21 states.

The University of Akron has the most significant endowment of any public university in northern Ohio. Akron's combined endowments were valued at more than $250 million as of December 2000.

The University of Akron's School of Law is one of only 184 law schools accredited by the American Bar Association, and is one of 164 schools with membership in the Association of American Law Schools.

Among the law school's alumni are 123 federal and state judges in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, Michigan, New Jersey, New York, Idaho, Florida, Georgia, Oregon, Texas, Colorado and the District of Columbia.

The University's School of Law offers the only joint graduate program in law and taxation in northeast Ohio, jointly offering the degree with the College of Business Administration.

The Intellectual Property and Technology Center in the School of Law is one of approximately 14 such centers in the nation.

The School of Law also hosts one of only four constitutional law centers established by the U.S. Congress and The Joseph G. Miller Institute of Professional Responsibility, a leader in the state.

Wayne College is one of only five Novell Education Authorized Training Partners in Ohio. Students can simultaneously qualify for Novell's Certified Network Administrator and Certified Network Engineer certifications.

The University of Akron's Wayne College and The Ohio State University's Agricultural Technical Institute won the Ohio Continuing Higher Education Association's Program Excellence Award for 2000 for a joint program with the Gerstenslager Company, based in Wooster, which is a subsidiary of Worthington Industries.

1.15.4 Community Well Being

In February 2001, the Institute for Health and Social Policy was awarded the University's largest grant to date — $13.7 million from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, based in Princeton, N.J, — to undertake research focused on the D.A.R.E. program, a drug education program for seventh through ninth grades.

The Audiology and Speech Center is a training facility for students. Working under the guidance of faculty, students provide assessment and treatment services for more than 1,000 clients each year, including children with speech, language and hearing disorders. The University of Akron and the University of North Carolina are the only two university training centers in the country providing auditory-verbal clinics for children with severe hearing impairments. The center also services adults, including those who have acquired head traumas; persons who cannot speak and require technology to express themselves; and elderly persons with hearing losses. Its fully endowed and privately funded Assistive Listening Device Lab, where individuals with hearing loss are introduced to numerous new forms of listening technology, is the only lab of its kind in Ohio.

The University of Akron College of Nursing has established Ohio's first Cooperative Education Nursing Program, an academic program that provides enriching professional experiences for qualified baccalaureate students.

The Center for Nursing in Mary Gladwin Hall was one of the first nurse-managed clinical centers in the country when it was established in 1980. Undergraduate and graduate students work with faculty preceptors in the center to provide health monitoring and education services to the University and Greater Akron communities.

The Clinic for Child Study and Family Therapy Services was formed in 1986 as a training, research and teaching facility. Approximately 800 clients a year use the clinic, which is staffed by master's degree and doctoral students, and supervised by licensed faculty. Confidential treatment is designed on a case-by-case basis.

The Decker Family Development Center, a collaborative effort started in 1990 involving The University of Akron's College of Education and the Buchtel College of Arts and Sciences, Children's Hospital Medical Center of Akron and Barberton City Schools, is recognized as a national model for the coordination of early intervention services. The center has earned numerous national and state awards, including the 2000 Ohio BEST Practice Award for Breakthrough Programs and the 1998 Exemplary Programming for Children and Families by the National Organization of Social Workers.

The University of Akron, as a partner in the Northeastern Ohio Universities College of Medicine consortium, offers a program that can take a high school senior all the way to a combined B.S./M.D. degree in just six years. Students take formation coursework at The University of Akron, then move to the medical school campus or one of 16 associated teaching hospitals in the area for advanced courses and clinical preparation. NEOUCOM graduates more than 100 physicians a year, and more than half enter a primary care specialty right here in Ohio.

The Center for Child Development, a collaborative effort of the College of Education and College of Fine and Applied Arts, was one of the first preschool programs in the nation to earn the prestigious national accreditation of the National Academy of Early Childhood Programs in 1986. The center has held continuous accreditation since that time.

Founded in 1994, the Akron-Summit PreK-16 Initiative is the only university-based partnership of its kind in Ohio. The initiative serves as an umbrella advisory and support group for existing and potential school-university collaborations.

The University of Akron continues to be a major feeder for school leadership in Ohio. At last count, 54 incumbent superintendents earned their superintendent's certification from the College of Education.

Education Graduate Outreach programs, which enroll more than 500 educators per semester in master's programs and professional development workshops at seven off-campus sites throughout Ohio, won the 2000 Creative Program-Credit Award from the University Continuing Education Association's Region IV.

Following an intense nationwide competition, The University of Akron was selected as the new institutional host for the prestigious American Psychological Association's Division 17 Student Affiliate group through 2004.

The Speech Pathology program in The University of Akron's School of Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology is one of the most selective in Ohio. The program admits only 20 students per year out of 200 applicants. Those graduating from the master's program boast a 95 percent pass rate on their National Certification Exams. In 2001, the school became a partner with Kent State University to offer the nation's first joint program leading to a Doctor of Audiology degree.

The School of Family and Consumer Sciences is one of only 68 schools in the country to hold voluntary accreditation from the American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences. In 1997, the school's interior design program was accredited at the professional level by the Foundation for Interior Design Education and Research; only 25 percent of interior design programs hold this prestigious designation.

The interdisciplinary anthropology major at the University is distinct among undergraduate anthropology programs in the United States. Here, undergraduates work directly with advisers to create courses of study that are based in anthropology, but involve seven partner disciplines, allowing students to tailor their majors to their specific interests. Students also are able to participate in local, national and international research projects that are usually reserved for graduate students.

The School of Social Work is part of the first partnership in the country to offer an entire master's degree curriculum using interactive technology and distance education. Faculty and students at The University of Akron and Cleveland State University are linked by two-way audio and video for the innovative Master of Social Work (M.S.W.) Program. Furthermore, the program is the only joint M.S.W. program in the United States.

One of the newest distance learning labs is part of the University's unique collaboration project with Akron's Central-Hower High School. The program provides two-way interaction, demonstration projects and assessment opportunities for University and high school faculty involved in the development of new instructional skills and methods to improve student academic achievement.

Founded in 1988, The University of Akron Press has 46 publications to its credit. A press publication, Unearthing the Land: The Story of Ohio's Scioto Marsh by Thomas Rumer, received the Center for Archival Collections' Local History Publication Award for 2000 in the Scholar Division. Press publications also have received awards from the American Association of University Presses, Choice, the Poetry Society of America, the Professional Football Researchers' Association, the Public Works Historical Society and the Society of Professional Journalists.

Among the University's scholarships are the Jim and Vanita Oelschlager Leadership Awards, established in mid-2000 with a $10 million gift from the couple — the largest gift in the University's history. This innovative scholarship program provides students with unprecedented access to higher education at The University of Akron or at other fine universities across the country and abroad. The scholarships are focused on the long-term potential of talented students who have demonstrated leadership, scholarship and service. Awards range from $1,000 to $11,500 annually.

The University of Akron was named 1999 and 2000 School of the Year by Campus Activities Magazine, recognizing the year-long efforts of the University's Residence Hall Program Board and University Program Board.

For the seventh consecutive year, the Residence Hall Program Board received the "Outstanding Comprehensive Programming Award" at the 2000 NACA Great Lakes Regional Conference in Louisville, Ky., in November. This award recognized the yearlong programming efforts of the Akron group. RHPB also received first place for Theme Publicity (Little Sibs Weekend), second place for Multi-Color Posters and third place for Web design.

The University of Akron's Residence Hall Council received the "2000 Student Award for Leadership Training" at the Central Atlantic Affiliate of College and University Residence Halls Regional Conference at Kutztown University in November. This award recognized Akron and Kent State University for their "Leadership on Loan" program. Residence hall leaders from both schools participated in a leadership/training exchange program.

The Tutorial Program within the Department of Developmental Programs was ranked second in the competition for the National Tutoring Associations' Outstanding Tutorial Program.

Wayne College's developmental programs are listed in the National Directory of Exemplary Programs in Developmental Education.

1.15.5 Cultural Enrichment

E.J. Thomas Performing Arts Hall attracts more than 400,000 patrons annually. This flagship performance venue features world-renowned artists as well as college productions. Staff members from the hall are active in the operation of the Civic Theatre, an Akron landmark seen as a key to the revitalization of the downtown area. Almost every day, events and performances draw patrons to campus and reach into the community at off-campus venues. The School of Music, for example, presents more than 350 concerts and recitals each year.

The University of Akron's graduate Arts Administration Program prepares students to manage non-profit arts organizations. One of fewer than 30 arts administration programs nationwide, the program draws students from around the world.

Folk Hall, home of the Mary Schiller Myers School of Art, is among the largest arts facilities in the region. Forty studio labs have extensive equipment for ceramics, digital imaging, sculpture, professional and fine art photography, drawing, metalsmithing and jewelry, printmaking, painting, illustration, and graphic design.

Design x Nine (pronounced "Design by Nine") in the Mary Schiller Myers School of Art, an in-house studio for selected senior graphic arts students, is a quasi-commercial venture that allows outstanding artists and designers to work on University communications and projects for area advertising agencies. The studio has won numerous regional "Addys," which are the industry's equivalent to Oscar and Emmy awards for the best work of the year.

School of Music Director Dr. William Guegold was presented with the Olympic Order Award at the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia. Guegold earned the International Olympic Committee's highest noncompetitive honor in recognition of his scholarly work on the history of Olympic music.

1.15.6 Student Success

WZIP-FM radio station is a 24-hour a day learning laboratory in the School of Communication that features popular music, news, sports and community information. According to the Arbitron rating service, approximately 130,000 people listen to WZIP every week, making it one of the highest-rated, student-operated radio stations in the country.

A team of six University of Akron chemical engineering students won first place in the first National Chem-E-Car Competition sponsored by General Mills at the American Institute of Chemical Engineers Annual Student Conference in Los Angeles on Nov. 12, 2000.

In 1999, The University of Akron's Society of Automotive Engineers student chapter won three major collegiate design competitions — the national Formula Car Competition, the Aero Design West Competition, and the Midwest Mini-Baja Competition. The University's SAE Cargo Aircraft team has set world records for the most weight lifted by a radio-controlled aircraft in both the regular-class and open-class categories. Akron engineering students have won more SAE design competitions in the 1990s than SAE teams from all other Ohio universities and colleges combined. Officials for SAE — a professional engineering society with 75,000 members in 97 countries — have hailed Akron's success as unprecedented in the organization's 94-year history.

The American Society of Mechanical Engineers ranked The University of Akron student chapter number one in the nation in the organization's Allied-Signal competition. The contest evaluates the performance of ASME student chapters during a 12-month period, assigning points for such activities as community involvement, publications, organizing industrial tours, and the like. In 1998, the Akron chapter posted its 11th consecutive perfect score in the Allied-Signal contest.

For the 10th consecutive year, the Biomedical Engineering Society has awarded its Meritorious Achievement Award to The University of Akron's student chapter. Fewer than six chapters receive the Meritorious Achievement Award each year, yet Akron has earned the award every year since the award was established.

Since the fall of 1997, Zip student-athletes have been recognized as All-Americans 20 times in nine different sports, including three athletes earning Academic All-America notice four times.

During the last four years, 153 UA student-athletes have been named Academic All MAC. The Zip football team led the conference with 10 selections in 1998.

In February 2001, Christi Smith was named as one of 10 finalists for the 71st annual AAU James E. Sullivan Memorial Award, which recognizes the top amateur athlete in the nation. Smith was the only track and field athlete among the group.

University of Akron coaches Brian Vereb and Chris Medvedeff were named 2001 Mid American Conference Swimming Coach of the Year and Diving Coach of the Year, respectively, at the MAC Championship meet in Buffalo, N.Y.

Section 1.16: Research Centers and Institutes

Ray C. Bliss Institute of Applied Politics
John C. Green, Ph.D., Director

The Ray C. Bliss Institute of Applied Politics in the Buchtel College of Arts and Sciences is one of the nation's premier centers of research and instruction on the "nuts and bolts" of applied politics. In fact, The University of Akron is one of only five institutions in the United States that offers such a program. The Bliss Institute conducts extensive research on political campaigns, campaign finance and political parties. The institute is nationally recognized for its quadrennial "State of the Parties Conference," held after each presidential election. The conference brings together political and journalistic analysts from around the nation to assess the state of the political parties and the health of American democracy. The Bliss Institute offers two unique academic programs — a master's in applied politics and a certificate in applied politics. The institute also is known for its excellent internship programs, which place student interns with campaigns, office holders, political parties and interest groups at the local, state and national levels. Each year, the institute exposes the public to a wide range of political viewpoints through a speaker series, other public programs, publications and commentary in the news media. In this context, the institute regularly hosts visiting political leaders from around the world that are seeking training in applied politics and insight into the American political process.

Institute for Biomedical Engineering Research
Stanley E. Rittgers, Ph.D., Director

This institute was established in 1979 to promote interdisciplinary studies in the rapidly growing areas of knowledge that overlap the fields of biology and medicine, on the one hand, and engineering and the physical sciences, on the other. It conducts seminars, courses and degree programs in biomedical engineering in association with the College of Engineering and individual departments.

In addition to its research and educational functions, the institute provides a research service to local hospitals and industry, as well as to private and government agencies. The premise for this program is that the combined resources of the University, Northeastern Ohio Universities College of Medicine and affiliated organizations will often permit more cost-effective solutions than would be possible by an individual or group doing the research independently.

The work of the institute is carried out by faculty of the Department of Biomedical Engineering in association with "members" selected from the faculties of The University of Akron and Northeastern Ohio Universities College of Medicine, as well as from the ranks of area physicians, engineers and scientists. The institute and the department occupy the third floor of the Olson Research Center on the north edge of the campus.

Center for Conflict Management
James G. Stanley, Ph.D., Acting Director

The Center for Conflict Management provides students with an opportunity for an interdisciplinary program of study in resolving and managing conflicts in the areas of business/economics/labor, family/community and the international arena. Course programs draw on the resources of a wide spectrum of the University's academic departments. Upon completion of all selected courses, students receive not only academic credits for the courses but a Certificate for Conflict Management in their area of specialization. Part of the Buchtel College of Arts and Sciences, the center also sponsors workshops for teachers, special campus programs and research projects. It also collaborates with community organizations and similar programs on other campuses.

Center for Economic Education
Fred M. Carr, Ph.D., Director

The center exists to improve the economic literacy of individuals to help them function competently as citizens, producers and consumers.

The center conducts workshops, seminars and economic programs for teachers, students and interested groups. It provides consulting services in the area of economic education and acts as a clearinghouse for the gathering and dissemination of economic education materials and programs. It also fosters an understanding and appreciation of the American economic system.

The center seeks to increase the survival rate of family-owned businesses by focusing on the special challenges inherent in multigenerational family enterprises.

Center for Family Studies
Helen K. Cleminshaw, Ph.D., Director

The Center for Family Studies, established in 1979, was designed to stimulate and encourage the interdisciplinary study of the family. It serves both the University and the community by fostering collaboration among faculty, students, practitioners and community leaders on curriculum development, educational conferences and seminars, research and training, and public policy relevant to important family issues.

The center is represented by faculty from five colleges and over 15 disciplines. It also includes leaders from various community systems, such as schools, hospitals, courts, churches, mental health, social and health care agencies. In addition, the center has a fellows program in which outstanding faculty and community leaders are named as either fellows, adjunct fellows or senior fellows.

The center offers certificates in the following specialty areas: conflict management, case management, divorce mediation and home-based intervention. Any student, faculty member or community person interested in family issues is invited to call the director to learn how they can participate or learn more about the center's activities.

Center for Policy Studies
Jesse F. Marquette, Ph.D., Director

The Center for Policy Studies is an associated center of the Institute for Health and Social Policy.

The center houses The University of Akron survey research unit, with responsibility for external grant and contract research, research support for the Urban University linkage program, sponsored research for faculty and internal University surveys. Geographic scope of work for center projects extends from local jurisdictions through state, national and international projects. Most of the work conducted at the center is on behalf of government or nonprofit agencies or grant-funded subcontracts for faculty researchers. Center professional staff is available for consultation in the development of grant proposals and budgets.

The center has responsibility for the administration of the Board of Regents Urban University Program (UUP) which links eight state universities to collaborate on the identification of significant urban problems and propose solutions designed to improve the urban regions of Ohio. The University of Akron Urban University Program, in addition to the collaborative mission of the Ohio UUP, encourages community-oriented research and policy analysis through the Partnership Grant Program. The center also houses a State Data Center under the auspices of the Ohio Department of Development to provide census and other data to appropriate agencies and coordinate geographic information system activities with the Department of Geography and Planning.

Center for Urban Studies

The Center for Urban Studies is The University of Akron's oldest policy research and professional service unit. Established in 1965, the center acts as a bridge between the University and the Akron community, Ohio and beyond in pursuit of the University's urban mission. Using the talents of faculty, researchers, support staff and students, the center explores important economic, social and political issues; works with others to reach a better understanding of these issues; and assists groups and organizations actively engaged in problem solving, coalition building, or strategic planning.

This multidisciplinary approach encourages faculty and graduate student participation from all departments with an urban focus. A part of the Buchtel College of Arts and Sciences, the Center for Urban Studies provides the setting and facilities through which interested faculty and graduate students become involved in urban research or professional service activities in the urban community. For many graduate students, experience gained in the Center for Urban Studies becomes an important complement to formal classroom training in their career participation.

English Language Institute
Debra L. Deane, M.A., Director

The English Language Institute, established in 1979, provides noncredit academic English as a Second Language instruction to international students and nonnative residents who plan to pursue an undergraduate or graduate degree at The University of Akron or another U.S. university. The intensive, 20-hour-per-week English program also serves students who wish to improve their English to meet their own professional and/or personal goals.

ELI courses at four levels of English proficiency target language and academic skills needed for successful study at a U.S. university: reading efficiently, writing clearly, taking lecture notes and communicating effectively with people on and off campus. Students also study grammar and vocabulary and prepare for the TOEFL test of English language proficiency, which is required for admission to the University. In addition, students receive a wide variety of support services designed to facilitate their transition to life and study in the United States.

The ELI serves as a resource on issues relating to language proficiency not only for University faculty, staff and students but also for members of the local community. ELI faculty can provide workshops and specialized courses to help departments meet the needs of their international students.

Fisher Institute for Professional Selling

The institute also develops short courses and seminars designed to help improve the international competitiveness of area business.

Institute for Health and Social Policy
Richard C. Stephens, Ph.D., Director

The Institute for Health and Social Policy focuses on the study of the effective delivery of health and social services, and it has become one of the University's strongest centers of research since it was established in February 1999. In February 2001, it was awarded the University's largest grant to date — $13.7 million from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, based in Princeton, N.J. — to undertake research focused on the D.A.R.E. program, a drug education program for seventh and ninth grades. The institute provides opportunities for faculty and students to collaborate on research and evaluate nationally significant projects on prevention, public policy, urban studies, and health and social services. It also is a vital educational resource for the community, providing current data and information on the latest advances in behavioral and social science research.

The Institute of Life-Span Development and Gerontology has grown into a campus-wide program involving more than 65 faculty in 23 different departments, representing six colleges. Students in the certificate programs carry out field placements at numerous community service settings. There are more than 40 courses at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Research, education, training and service support has been received from the U.S. Administration on Aging, National Institute on Aging, U.S. Department of Education, Office of Special Education and Rehabilitation Services, National Institute on Disability and Rehabilitation Research, AARP Andrus Foundation, Ohio Department of Aging and Area Agency on Aging 10B. The institute also serves as a major site for the Rehabilitation Research and Training Center Consortium on Aging and Developmental Disabilities involving seven universities in six states.

An example of outreach activities is the Elderhostel program, offered each summer for older adults who participate in a weeklong residential learning experience.

The institute is a member of the Northeastern Ohio Consortium on Geriatric Medicine and Gerontology, joining together with the Office of Geriatric Medicine and Gerontology, Northeastern Ohio Universities College of Medicine; Gerontology Center, Kent State University; and Gerontology Committee, Youngstown State University.

Institute of Polymer Engineering
James L. White, Ph.D., Director

The Institute of Polymer Engineering carries out fundamental and applied research in polymer processing, engineering performance and associated characterization. The institute, founded in 1983, seeks to be a major intellectual and research resource in Northeast Ohio. The institute maintains up-to-date and futuristic processing and characterization laboratories, with continued interest in development investigation of new process technology and new materials. Its activities also include organization of scientific symposia and various seminars related to polymer processing and engineering.

The Maurice Morton Institute of Polymer Science
Frank W. Harris, Ph.D., Director

The institute is concerned with basic and applied research in polymers. It was established in 1956 as the Institute of Rubber Research and, in 1964, became the interdisciplinary Institute of Polymer Science. The University's first Ph.D. program in polymer chemistry was started in 1956 and was administered by the institute until a separate Department of Polymer Science was established in 1967. The institute maintains extensive laboratory facilities, an applied research group, a macromolecular modeling center and a mini pilot plant for polymer synthesis. It is the principal organization responsible for external funding of research projects and graduate fellowships in polymer science.

Microscale Physiochemical Engineering Center
William Brian Arbuckle, Ph.D., Director

The Microscale Physiochemical Engineering Center was established in 1996 by faculty with a common research interest in materials composed of very small particles. These small particles occur, for example, in heterogeneous catalysts, fluid/solid separations, paper-pulp processing, soil remediation, waste water decontamination and solid transport.

The unique feature of MPEC is the ability to form multidisciplinary teams of faculty and graduate students to solve specific industrial problems. The center hosts an annual conference, promotes networking, provides a forum for industrial-university cooperation and is a consortium of industrial sponsors for fundamental and applied research in microscale physiochemical engineering.

Notes: (1) Faculty FTE is, for non-individual studies/outdoor laboratories, equal to the number of Fall semester undergraduate course credit hours taught divided by 12 and the number of graduate credit hours divided by 9. For individual studies/outdoor laboratories undergraduate courses and courses with less than three students, faculty FTE equals student credit hours divided by 60 (5x12); for similar type graduate courses, faculty FTE equals student credit hours divided by 27 (3x9). No faculty member was equated to more than 1.0 faculty FTE.

(2) Student FTE is a hypothetical student who enrolls in 15 credit hours per semester. The student FTEs in this table are course-based, not student-level based, indicators of productivity

(3) Student Faculty Ratio (SFR) is the student FTEs divided by Faculty FTEs.

NOTES: (1) Historically, UA has not attempted to keep a formal record of the certificates awarded. The numbers reported here are a first attempt to reconstruct certificate award activity.

(2) A program with an "X" indicates the program has been or is scheduled to be deleted.

(3) A dash in the "AWARDS" filed indicates the program was not offered that year.

(4) "AVG SCH" are UA credits only; excludes transfer SCH.

(5) "% Non-White" excludes "Non-Resident Alien" and "Other/Unknown".

(6) "% OH HS" is the percentage of students who graduated from Ohio high schools.

(7) The degrees awarded reported in Table 2.7 reflect data as collected from the final audit of the commencement files by the Registrar's Office following each term's commencement. HEI reporting is submitted once at the end of each fiscal year. Discrepancies may arise between the two files as late awards may be retroactively added following the final term's audit. The below table depicts the number of late awards reported to HEI but not included in Table 2.7:

HIGHLIGHTS

Introduction

Section 3 contains information on The University of Akron students. Information concerning applications, admissions, attendance and headcount by rank is summarized in Tables 3.1 - 3.5. Tables 3.6 - 3.8 depict location of permanent residence by nation, state or Ohio county. Student headcount by college, department, program, attendance status and demographic characteristics data are presented in Tables 3.9 - 3.13. Tables 3.14 - 3.16 contain FTE trend data, student credit hour load information and full-year equivalent student (FYES) trends.

Changes from Prior Year Information Releases

Data definitions were corrected which make some data in previous information releases incomparable. The definition of a valid application was clarified. Students are now associated with the college of declared major. The list of programs was reviewed and extensively revised with the assistance of each Dean's office. The new program inventory is shown in Table 2.1. This program structure is used in Table 3.10 on Headcount by Major. Students whose ethnicity code is "Other" or "Unknown" are now excluded in the calculation of minority percentages. Also new to this Fact Book are data on applications, FTEs, credit hour load and FYES.

Numbers reported in the Fact Book will differ slightly from those reported to the Ohio Board of Regents' Higher Education Information (HEI) system. Student headcount and credit hour production in the Fact Book are derived from the semester opening census date (15th calendar day) numbers. Students who enroll in flexibly scheduled course sections after the 15th calendar day, but before the HEI census date, are not reported here. They are reported in HEI. Degrees awarded reported in the Fact Book are of the date the commencement file is loaded. Students who are retroactively added to commencements files are not in the Fact Book, but may be reported in HEI if they are added prior to the annual HEI degree file submission.

NOTES: (1) "% OH UG" is the percentage of students who graduated from an Ohio undergraduate institution.
(2) "% Non-White" excludes "Non-Resident Alien" and "Other/Unknown".
(3) "Accept Ratio" is calculated by total applicants accepted divided by applicants applied.
(4) "Yield Ratio" is calculated by total applicants enrolled divided by applicants accepted.
(5) Only applicants applying for formal acceptance into a graduate program are included in this table. Non-degree seeking or unclassified applicants are not.
(6) New graduate students reflected in this table applied specifically for the Fall semesters listed. In the enrollment tables that follow, new graduate students may have applied in previous semesters thereby resulting in discrepancies between the application and enrollment tables.
(7) School of Law applicants are not entered on the Student Records System until they are accepted. The number of applicants is provided by the School of Law Admissions office.

NOTES: (1) "Directly Admitted" students are admitted directly into a degree-granting college.
(2) "Unconditionally Admitted" students meet the criteria for admission, but not the criteria for direct admission.
(3) "Conditionally Admitted" (Provisional) students are academically underprepared and are required to to complete skill building courses and other prescriptive activities.
(3) "Other Admits" include guest or transient students, students required to take only developmental courses, or those students over the age of 21 not required to submit ACT/SAT scores for admission.
(4) Headcount by college includes all declared majors, not just those formally admitted into that college. Students are counted only once, by the home college of the program they are enrolled in. Prior to 1997, Wayne programs were not recorded separately from Community and Technical College majors. For that year, C&T and Wayne students were determined instead by their branch of attendance.
(5) % Non-white excludes "Non-Resident Alien" and "Other/Unknown".
(6) % OH HS grads is the percentage of students who graduated from Ohio high schools.
(7) All new freshmen are reflected above, regardless of their term of application.

NOTES: (1) "Unclassified / Non-Degree Seeking" (NDS) includes non-degree students as well as undeclared majors. At the college-level, Wayne College NDS students are included in Wayne's headcount numbers, all other UA NDS students are in the Unclassified / Non-Degree Seeking row.

(2) Headcount by college includes all declared majors, not just those formally admitted into that college. Students are counted only once, by the home college of the program they are enrolled in.

(3) "First-Time First Year" students represent those students who are enrolled in college for the first time and after earning either a high school diploma or GED.

(4) The number of students with undeclared majors or those not yet admitted to a degree-granting college are as follows:

	1998	1999	2000
University College	7,963	7,795	7,608

(5) Law School students are classified Day/Evening based upon program of admittance. Day students are considered full-time while evening students are part-time. Breakdown for day/evening students are as follows:

	1998	1999	2000
Day	390	377	364
Evening	201	188	164

NOTES: (1) "Unclassified / Non-Degree Seeking" (NDS) include non-degree students as well as undeclared majors. At the college-level, Wayne College NDS students are included in Wayne's headcount numbers, all other UA NDS students are in the Unclassified / Non-Degree Seeking row.

(2) Headcount by college includes all declared majors, not just those formally admitted into that college. Students are counted only once, by the home college of the program they are enrolled in.

(3) The number of students with undeclared majors or those not yet admitted to a degree-granting college are as follows:

	1998	1999	2000
University College	7,963	7,795	7,608

(4) Law School students are classified Day/Evening based upon program of admittance. Day students are considered full-time while evening students are part-time. Breakdown for day/evening students is as follows:

	1998	1999	2000
Day	390	377	364
Evening	201	188	164

(3) Developmental level courses do not carry academic credit toward a degree program. Lower Division includes course numbers under 300 (1st & 2nd year). Upper Division includes 300 and 400 level courses (3rd & 4th year). Graduate courses are numbered 500 and above.

(4) Although the following programs report to the SVPP, in this Fact Book the student credit hours generated by them are reported under degree granting colleges. Aerospace Studies, Military Science and the Honors Program are reported in BCAS. Women's Studies is under FAA.

(5) FTE is rounded to the nearest tenth Therefore, totals may not add due to rounding.

NOTES: (1) Headcount (HC) and Student Credit Hours (SCH) by college includes all declared majors, not just those formally admitted into that college. Students are counted only once, by the home college of the program they are enrolled in.
(2) Unclassified (UNC) includes non-degree seeking students and those not yet declaring a major.
(3) "<" stands for "less than"; ">" stands for "greater than". For example, "< 1 Cr" stands for "less than 1 credit hour."

NOTES: (1) "FYES" or Full Year Equivalent Student is the sum of Summer, Fall, and Spring semester SCH / 36.

(2) Headcount of students whose majority of credit hours were taken at Wayne College:

1,520	1,385	1,656	1,573	1,515

(3) Developmental level courses do not carry academic credit toward a degree program. Lower Division includes course numbers under 300 (1st & 2nd year). Upper Division includes 300 and 400 level courses (3rd & 4th year). Graduate courses are numbered 500 and above.

(4) The credit hours in this table are course-based, not student-level based.

(5) Although the following programs report to the SVPP, in this Fact Book the student credit hours generated by them are reported under degree granting colleges. Aerospace Studies, Military Science and the Honors Program are reported in BCAS. Women's Studies is reported in FAA.

Table 4.7 depicts UA administrative and professional staff salaries compared to other Ohio public universities.

Changes from Prior Year Information Releases

Prior to constructing the Fact Book, an extensive HR data audit was conducted by UA's Office of Human Resources and iPLAN that resulted in the re-categorization of UA positions by Job Type. This data administration task resulted in much more accurate reporting of employment trends by Job Type depicted in Section 4. Tables 4.2 – 4.6 containing employment data by gender, ethnicity, job category, college, administrative unit and department are new. Also Table 4.7 containing comparative salary data has been added. Twenty-seven new graphs are included to highlight key comparisons and trends. Every table and chart is designed for maximum readability and maximum information content.

HIGHLIGHTS

Introduction

Section 5 contains information on The University of Akron fiscal year revenue and expenditures, tuition and fees, and selected comparative data. Tables 5.1 and 5.2 contain data on revenues by source for UA vice presidential units, colleges and schools. Table 5.3 contains data on expenditures by source for UA vice presidential units, colleges and schools. Tables 5.4 and 5.5 report student financial assistance. Table 5.6 shows UA tuition and fees and in Table 5.7 these fees with other selected institutions. Tables 5.8 – 5.10 places UA figures within the State of Ohio context, while Table 5.11 provides national education price information.

Changes from Prior Year Information Releases

As with Sections 4, 6 and 7, Section 5, in its entirety, is new. With the assistance of the Office of the Controller and the Office of Resource Analysis and Budget, revenues and expenditures were matched to the audited financial statements and reconstructed to reflect the current UA organizational structure for Tables 5.2 and 5.3. Institutional comparisons, information on State of Ohio appreciations and national educational price information have been added. Dispersed throughout Section 5's 11 tables are 18 charts that highlight key indicators and trends.

Highlights

- In FY00, total University revenue increased to $275.7 million (+6.2%). Unrestricted revenue increased to $235.7 million (+4.8%). Student fees increased to $93.2 million (+4.4%). State appropriations increased $98.8 million (+3.2%).

- In FY00, restricted revenues increased as a proportion of total revenues from 13.3% to 14.5%. This is largely attributed to a 55.4% increase in state grants and a 38% increase in endowment revenue.

- In FY00, unrestricted Educational & General expenditures decreased by $0.5 million to $236.6 million. This decrease can be primarily attributed to an $8 million decrease (-153%) in ERIP expenditures. Unrestricted Instructional expenditures increased $5.4 million (+5.9%) and unrestricted Research expenditures increased $0.8 million (+20.9%).

- In FY01, resident undergraduate tuition for both the Community & Technical College and Wayne College decreased 5% with their participation in the OBR Access Challenge. Resident undergraduate tuition for four-year programs increased 6%.

- In FY01, UA resident undergraduate annualized cost was $4,596; just $32 lower than the average for Ohio's state- assisted universities. While the average resident undergraduate cost increased by 5% statewide from FY00 to FY01, UA's cost increased by 8%.

- UA resident undergraduate tuition is greater than the average for selected national peer institutions. In FY01, it was just 2% above the MAC average, but 27% above the Urban 13 average and 33% above the MUG average.

- In FY01, UA non-resident undergraduate annualized cost was $10,799; $771 higher than the average for Ohio's state-assisted universities. While the average non-resident undergraduate cost increased by 5% statewide from FY00 to FY01, UA's rate increased by just 3%.

(2) Negative numbers are in parentheses.
(3) In FY98 the University adopted the provisions of GASB Statement No. 31, Accounting and Financial Reporting for Certain Investments and for External Investment Pools. This change in accounting procedures led to the creation of the "Unrealized Appreciation (Depreciation) on Investment" line in the report. For a detailed explanation see Audited Financial Statements, FY98, page 11.
(4) These are total University of Akron figures and include Wayne College.
(5) "Unrestr" and "Restrict" are abbreviations for "Unrestricted" and "Restricted", respectively.

NOTES: (1) The distribution of student credit hours (SCH) by college is used to prorate tuition revenues to the appropriate colleges.

(2) "Course & Computing Fees", and" Information Technology Fee" revenues are directly traced to the college providing the course. The University-wide Technology fee was implemented in FY00; however, the College of Engineering implemented its own technology fee two years earlier. With the exception of Wayne College and the College of Engineering (which retain 100%), 35% of the fees collected stay in the college and the remaining 65% is distributed to the VPCIO division for central use. In FY00 a sum of $742,406 was distributed to the colleges, which is reflected in the subsequent college detail that follows.

(3) "Other Student Charges" include General Service Fees (net of Intercollegiate Athletics support) and miscellaneous fees that cannot be attributed to colleges or linked to credit hour production.

(4) "Instructional Subsidy-Earned" is The University of Akron's share of the State's Instructional Support allocation.

(5) "Challenge Support" includes: Success Challenge allocation, which is based on retention and timely graduation of at-risk students, and Access Challenge allocation, which is provided to partially offset the controlled tuition of the Community & Technical College and Wayne College

(6) "IGB" (Institute for Global Business) is a unique line item in the State budget. The funding is applied to the College of Business Administration's operating budget.

HIGHLIGHTS

Introduction

Section 6 contains information on research and public service activity. Tables 6.1 – 6.5 provide summary information on expenditures, proposals, and other measures of research activity. Table 6.6 provides selected comparative research activity data. Tables 6.7 – 6.10 contain data on UA libraries and computer facilities. UA continuing education, public service and community outreach activities are listed in Tables 6.11 and 6.12.

Changes from Prior Year Information Releases

As with Sections 4, 5 and 7, Section 6, in its entirety, is new. Its 10 tables include detailed data on research proposals and awards, computer facilities, continuing education, public service and outreach information. Also included are 23 charts that highlight key indicators and trends.

Highlights

- Research expenditures in FY00 were $14.3 million, an increase of $2.7 million (+23%). Faculty research projects increased the most with a gain of $2.3 million (+43%).

- In FY00, the number of total awards increased to 440 (+18%). Corporate awards (+53%) and federal awards (+34%) account for the majority of the increase. The total value of awards increased to $21.9 million (+23%). Most of this increase can be attributed to federal (+41%) and state awards (+52%).

- In FY99 The University of Akron ranked 224th nationally based on federally funded research and development (R&D) expenditures with $7.1 million. This is an increase of $3.1 million since 1994 and a 77% increase from FY98. The University of Akron placed sixth among Ohio's state supported universities. Ohio University with expenditures of $10.5 million was ranked 193rd nationally and Kent State University with expenditures of $8.2 million was ranked 212th.

- The Continuing Education and Evening Division continued to increase its service to the community. An increase of over 13% in the number of courses offered in FY00 resulted in a 33% increase in registrations and a 44% increase in gross income.

- The Audiology and Speech Center continued to serve over 1,000 clients for assessment and treatment of speech, language, and hearing disorders.

- The University's traditionally strong contribution to and support of the cultural community continued, led by the Myers School of Art, E.J. Thomas Performing Arts Hall and WZIP-FM.

IBM System/390 Enterprise Server

The System/390 Parallel Enterprise Server general-purpose models are a continuation of the Complementary Metal Oxide Semiconductor (CMOS) product family. The 9672 Model Y26 is a Generation 5 S/390 Parallel Enterprise Server that contains a two-way central processor.

Memory:	5 GB Central Storage
Speed:	296 MIPS
Channels:	24 Parallel channels - 4.5 MB/sec copper channels 32 ESCON - 17 MB/sec fiber optic channels

Channels - Parallel

The parallel channel feature provides three channels on one card. Each parallel channel attaches from one to eight control units and addresses up to 256 I/O devices.

Parallel channel cabling can be done using existing Bus and Tag cables from the first control unit on each channel to the 9672. At the 9672, a 78D-pin parallel jumper cable will be provided to connect the bus and tag cables to the parallel channel card. The 9672 will continue to support Bus and Tag cable lengths up to 400 feet.

Channels - ESCON

The ESCON (Enterprise System Connection) Channel consists of one card in the System/390 Parallel Enterprise Server and contains four channels. The ESCON Channel allows for attachment of I/O control units using a fiber optic cable, with higher speed and over longer distances compared to attachment via the Parallel Channel. The I/O devices attach through control units equipped for ESCON attachment. One control unit can be attached directly, point to point, to an ESCON Channel; several control units can be attached via an ESCON Director. The ESCON Channel allows the addressing of up to 1024 I/O devices per channel to the System/390 Parallel Enterprise Server.

The System/390 Parallel Enterprise Server allows 120 control units per ESCON channel. All ESCON channels are capable of operating at a data rate of up to 17 MB per second.

2105-F20 IBM Enterprise Storage Server

The IBM 2105 Enterprise Storage Server, IBM development code name "Stark", is the latest in IBM DASD. The ESS has 2.9 terabytes of storage and is based on a RAID 5 (Redundant Array of Inexpensive Disks) fault tolerant DASD architecture. The disk array consists of 112 high performance 36 gigabyte drives that emulate OS/390 3390 Model 3 devices. The response time for the 3390 devices ranges from less than 1 millisecond to upwards of 6ms. These fast response times are attributed to the 10,000 RPM high performance drives along with the 8 gigabytes of cache memory in the controller. The OS/390 system uses 16 fiber optic ESCON channels with a maximum transfer rate of 17 MB/sec each for a total theoretical throughput of 272 MB/sec or 2.2 Gbits/sec. Other operating systems, such as UNIX and NT, use SCSI attachments to interface with the ESS.

Capacity:	2.9 terabytes allocated as follows: • Terabyte for production OS/390 • 1 terabyte for Flashcopy Backups of production OS/390 • 420 gigabytes for test OS/90 • 420 gigabytes for Open Systems
Cache:	8 GB
Channels:	16 ESCON 8 SCSI

IBM 3494 Magstar Tape Library

The IBM Magstar Tape Library is the latest in automated tape library technology. Consisting of only four frames, there are two separate tape library systems housed within the physical complex. The first library system is a traditional automated tape library system similar to the previous Sutmyn ATL. The new technology has increased the storage capacity of the cartridges to 120 megabytes, 200 times the capacity of the previous cartridges. The second library system is a virtual tape system that utilizes a disk cache subsystem to emulate 32 virtual tape drives. Depending on the activity and utilization of the cache, the virtual tape is eventually written to a physical cartridge containing other virtual volumes. In addition to automation, the virtual tape system enables the system to effectively utilize the entire capacity of these high density tape cartridges. The two independent library systems have their own physical tape transports and control units but share other common components such as the robotic arm and storage cells.

Tape library automation provides for fast retrieval of data stored on tape using software controlled robotics. With automation, labor requirements associated with mount, shelving and cataloging tape are reduced. Automation simplifies implementing unattended operations for backups and makes it possible to improve services by moving applications, such as report distribution and microfiche, to tape in a cost effective manner. The result is improved tape mount operations with lower overall storage costs.

ATL/VTS Capacity: 805 cells/cartridges
ATLTransports: 3590 E quantity: 4
VTS Physical Transports: 3590 E quantity: 4
VTS Virtual Transports: 3490 quantity: 32
Individual VTS 3590 cartridge capacity: 20 GB uncompressed, 60 GB compressed
Individual ATL 3590 Expended cartridge capacity: 40 GB uncompressed, 120 GB compressed

Continuing Education and Evening Division

Administrative changes:

1. 1994: The offices of Continuing Education, Public Service, and Outreach (CEPSO) were reorganized as The University of Akron Service Centers (UASC). This decentralized system served as a service support unit for the colleges. UASC supported academic programs in the colleges. Revenue was generated on a fee-for-services basis.
2. 1997: UASC was reorganized as the Division of Continuing Education. This centralized unit functioned as a developer of original programming as well as a fee-for-services provider. The Division continued to function with noncredit programs, but generated income which was based on programming.
3. 1998: The Division of Continuing Education was reorganized as Continuing Education and the Evening Division (centralized unit). This unit generates income from credit and noncredit programming as well as fee-for-services.

Audiology and Speech Center

- Each year more than 1,000 clients visit the School of Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology and its Audiology and Speech Center for assessment and treatment of speech, language, and hearing disorders. These clients include children with speech, language and hearing disorders; adults who have acquired head traumas; persons who cannot speak and require technology to express themselves; and elderly persons with hearing losses. The Center is one of only two University training centers in the country providing auditory-verbal clinics for children with severe hearing impairments.

Communications

- Student-operated WZIP-FM is an around-the-clock learning laboratory in the School of Communication that features urban contemporary music with news, sports, and community information. According to the Arbitron Radio Ratings Service, WZIP-FM is one of the most popular public radio stations in Ohio. Sixty percent of the listeners are ages 12 to 24, and 25 percent are ages 25 to 44. More than 130,000 listeners tune in every week, making the station competitive with commercial stations and an excellent recruiting and image-enhancing tool for UA.

Fine Arts

- The Myers School of Art manages four art galleries on campus. The largest is the Emily Davis Gallery, a nationally known exhibition space for contemporary art. Exhibitions there showcase established national and international artists as well as experimenting and emerging artists. The National Endowment for the Arts and the Ohio Arts Council have funded many critically distinguished exhibitions at the Emily Davis Gallery in recent years. The gallery also has originated three national traveling exhibitions. The Emily Davis Gallery programs at least 12 exhibitions every academic year, beginning in September with an annual Myers School of Art Faculty Exhibition and concluding during the spring semester with an annual juried student exhibition. All other exhibitions feature art from outside the region. The University art galleries also administers more than 200 exhibitions a year in student spaces within and on the grounds of the Myers School of Art, the Guzzetta Hall Atrium, and Bierce Library. In all, the various galleries' exhibitions, lectures, openings, and related events draw more than 15,000 visitors annually.

- The University of Akron's School of Music presents more than 350 music concerts and recitals each year, drawing an estimated 20,000 audience members. Most of the campus performances are in Guzzetta Recital Hall, a 250-seat facility with a Martin harpsichord, pipe organ, and two concert grand pianos. Other campus performances by the School of Music are presented in the E.J. Thomas Performing Arts Hall, including fully staged operas each spring in collaboration with the Tuesday Musical Club and the Children's Concert Society, and an annual spring performance by The University of Akron Steel Drum Band. Students and faculty from the School of Music also perform in Northeast Ohio as well as throughout the world.

- Some 5,000 patrons attend theatre and dance performances each year presented by The University of Akron, including musicals, one-act plays, choreographer workshops, dance concerts and much more. Three unique performance spaces and two well-equipped shops offer Theatre Program students at The University of Akron an outstanding range of performance, design and technical experiences. Sandefur Theatre in Guzzetta Hall is a flexible black-box theatre seating up to 125 patrons. Next to Sandefur Theatre are the Theatre Program's principal scene shop, costume shop, and makeup studio, as well as a box office for ticket sales. Also in Guzzetta Hall is the Varian Theatre, a black-box studio space for classes as well as the performance of experimental work and new plays. In Kolbe Hall is the Paul A. Daum Theatre, a 250-seat proscenium space with its own scene shop.

- The heart of the Dance Program beats in the Ballet Center, a late 19th-century church used exclusively by the University's Dance Program, the internationally acclaimed Ohio Ballet, and the Dance Institute, a preparatory program for students ages 4 through 18. Among the facilities are five studios, lecture spaces, two dressing rooms, a physician's examination room, a stage studio theatre, and a multi-media lab. The Ballet Center provides a close-knit community where dance students can establish roots and identity within the larger campus. Dance majors at The University of Akron have numerous performance opportunities to perfect their skills in front of the public. For example, the student company known as The University of Akron Dance Company (UADC) performs twice a year in one of several of the University's fine theatres, including the E.J. Thomas Performing Arts Hall. The well-attended campus performances are complemented by off-campus appearances by the Touring Ensemble. A select group, the Ensemble's students tour Akron area elementary schools each spring with an original and fully costumed production. In addition, dance students perform in a musical production on campus each fall.

- The University of Akron's E.J. Thomas Performing Arts Hall has been the center of culture and entertainment for Akron and the northeast Ohio community for the past 27 years. Each year E.J. Thomas Hall draws more than 400,000 patrons of all ages for over 500 activities. From September through May, E.J. Thomas Hall's Program Series includes Broadway musicals, world-renowned entertainers, ballet, opera, jazz, comedy, and a prominent speakers series. E.J. Thomas Hall also serves as home to the Akron Symphony Orchestra, Ohio Ballet, Tuesday Musical Club, Children's Concert Society, Akron Youth Symphony, and the Summit Choral Society.

- Arts Awareness Month completed its 10th successful year in April 2000. More than 40 concerts, lectures, art exhibitions, and other events during the annual event showcase the programs, students, faculty, and alumni of The University of Akron's College of Fine and Applied Arts. Most of the events are free, and all are open to the community. The annual celebration generates highly positive publicity and often capacity audiences.

- The College of Fine and Applied Arts' Diversity Week in the fall has complemented Arts Awareness Month in the spring. Planned by committees of campus and community representatives, Diversity Week has celebrated the arts and cultures of various groups. The first Diversity Week was held in 1996 as part of Northeast Ohio's India Fest. Subsequent Diversity Weeks have focused on Native Americans and Hispanics, with funding support from the Ohio Humanities Council. Diversity Week 1999 focused on China and Taiwan, and was the most extensive and best attended of all, drawing more than 2,500 patrons.

HIGHLIGHTS

Introduction

Section 7 provides descriptive statistics on The University of Akron physical facilities (buildings and grounds) and selected indicators of their use. Table 7.1 lists UA buildings by campus, year of acquisition, size and value. Tables 7.2 & 7.3 show room and space distribution by building and use. Table 7.4 contains occupancy rates for residential buildings and Table 7.5 contains enrollments for classrooms by day and start-time.

Changes from Prior Year Information Releases

As with Sections 4, 5 and 6, Section 7, in its entirety, is new. Included is information on detailed building and room utilization, classroom utilization by day and time and dormitory occupancy rates. Dispersed throughout Section 7's 5 tables are 13 charts that highlight key indicators and trends.

Highlights

- In Fall 2000, The University of Akron owned 69 buildings on a main campus situated on 170 acres. UA has the use of an additional 6 buildings owned by The University of Akron Foundation.

- The University owned an additional four buildings on the Wayne College campus in Fall 2000. Wayne College is situated on 151 acres.

- UA's owned buildings had over 5.3 million gross square feet, with a book value over $284 million and a replacement value of $664 million.

- The average age of the buildings was 42 years and the average time since they were renovated was 39 years. About 66% of the buildings were over 30 years old and 33% were over 50 years old. Fifty-eight percent of the buildings representing 50% of the gross square feet were built or renovated over 30 years ago.

- The University held classes both during the week and on weekends with starting times from approximately 6:00 am to after 8:00 pm. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday have the heaviest enrollments (23%, 20%, and 23% of the total weekly enrollment respectively). One percent of enrollments were on weekends, while two percent were in class with meeting times designated as "To Be Announced" (TBA).

- Classes with starting times before 9:00 am represented 16% of enrollments, those with meeting times between 9:00 am and 2:00 pm, inclusive, represented 55% of enrollments and those with starting times after 4:00 pm represented 14%.

- The University continued to renovate its residence halls. Ritchie Residence Hall was unavailable to students for Fall 2000 due to renovation projects. The University purchased three residence halls, Joey, Wallaby and Wallaroo, in 2000. In Fall 2000 the overall residence hall occupancy rate was 96%, 4% lower than in Fall 1999. Occupancy rates of individual halls ranged from a high of 100% for Wallaroo Hall to a low of 84% for Wallaby Residence Hall.

Glossary

ACT Equivalent Score

The derived ACT composite scores are based on the same percentile rank for students who submit SAT scores only. Information on the study is found in College Board Report NO. 92-3, Methods Used to Establish Score Comparability on the Enhanced ACT Assessment and the SAT, by G.L. Marco, A.A. Abdel-fattah, & P.A. Baron.

ACT/SAT Composite Score

ACT/SAT Composite uses the ACT combined score if reported. If only the SAT score is reported, the ACT Equivalent score is used.

E. H. Boeckh monitors building construction expenditure patterns and computes an index for apartments, hotels, and office buildings. This index is based on a fixed input of wages and building material prices weighted together in accordance with their importance to the cost of a unit of construction in the base period. The construction index is published in Building Cost Index Numbers, E. H. Boeckh, A Mitchell International Company, and reported in Construction Review, U.S. Department of Commerce.

Book Value

Carnegie Classification

The Carnegie Classification System is a systematic classification of institutions of higher education in the United States according to such variables as degrees offered, size, and commitment to research. This classification "groups" American colleges and universities according to their missions. The Carnegie Foundation has issued a revised 2000 edition and a long-term plan to undertake a comprehensive revision of the classification system scheduled for release in 2005. Additional information about the Carnegie Classification is available at: http://www.carnegiefoundation.org/Classification/index.htm
